Profile

Luma S. Al-Shibib is a shareholder in Anderson Kill's New York office and co-chair of the firm's Cyber Insurance Recovery Group. She focuses her practice on insurance recovery for corporate policyholders, with an emphasis on cyber liability insurance, crime insurance, directors & officers liability insurance, and other claims-made professional liability insurance.

Luma has secured hundreds of millions of dollars in recoveries for corporate clients in both litigation and prelitigation matters. She has obtained recoveries for cyber-related losses from data breaches, ransomware and phishing attacks under all-risk property and crime policies as well as cyber policies. She has also secured recoveries in both litigation and through settlement under D&O, E&O, and CGL policies.

Luma also has a background in bankruptcy and has represented clients in bankruptcy cases involving insurance claims, particularly in the context of claims under directors & officers liability insurance policies.

Luma is Co-Chair of Anderson Kill's Diversity Committee and involved in Anderson Kill's Women's Network.

While in law school, Luma interned as a student law clerk for the Honorable Laura Taylor Swain, Chief District Judge of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York.

Personal

Ms. Al-Shibib is committed to public service, pursuing various local and international community projects in her personal time. From 2010-2012, Ms. Al-Shibib served as a United States Peace Corps Volunteer to the Kalinago People in the Commonwealth of Dominica in the Eastern Caribbean, where her work included indigenous rights issues. She also has volunteered with the International Rescue Committee in New York, working with the refugee resettlement unit, Habitat for Humanity in Chang Mai, Thailand, and New York Cares.
