

Abigail Damsky

Attorney / New York

📞 212-278-1319

✉️ adamsky@andersonkill.com

Profile

Abigail Damsky is an attorney in Anderson Kill's New York office. She is a member of the firm's Insurance Recovery Group and Restaurant, Retail, and Hospitality Group.

While attending law school, Abby worked as a summer associate at Anderson Kill. She was also a judicial intern for the Honorable Loretta A. Preska in the Southern District of New York. She also interned at the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of New York and was a Legal Extern at the New York City Law Department in the Labor and Employment Division.

While attending Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law, Abby served as an Article Editor for Cardozo's Arts and Entertainment Law Journal and published her note in Volume 42, Number 2.

Education

- Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law
- Brandeis University, graduated cum laude

Practice Areas

- Insurance Recovery
- Employment and Labor

Industry Group

- Restaurant, Retail and Hospitality

Publications

Artificial Intelligence and The Law: A year-end retrospective

Westlaw Today / April 6, 2026

Artificial Intelligence and the Law: 2025 Year In Review

Anderson Kill Insights Series / February 27, 2026

Testing The Boundaries Of Product Liability For AI Products: How To Hold An Insurance Company Liable For AI Errors

MEALEY'S® Emerging Insurance Disputes / December 5, 2025

Viewpoint: Back to Basics – Risk Transfer Through Contracts and Insurance

Insurance Journal / July 25, 2025

Coverage for Business Interruption Loss from L.A. Wildfire Smoke Damage

Risk Management Magazine / January 22, 2025

Know the Limitations and Specifications in Racehorse Insurance Policies

Equine Business Magazine / November 15, 2024

Know the Limitations and Specifications in Racehorse Insurance Policies

Policyholder Alert / November 14, 2024

Litigation After Biometric Privacy Law Violations: Policyholder Victories and Their Implications

Journal of Emerging Issues in Litigation / January 26, 2024
