

Aurelia Mitchell Durant

Of Counsel / Newark

📞 973-642-5860

✉️ adurant@andersonkill.com

Profile

Aurelia Mitchell Durant is Of Counsel to Anderson Kill and a member of the Intellectual Property group. She concentrates her practice in intellectual property law and international business law.

In the intellectual property space, she has represented business owners, creatives and innovators in the protection of their valuable intellectual property assets. She has protected, recovered and safeguarded intellectual property assets by assisting in the development of brand protection strategies adaptable to today's global marketplace. Those strategies include copyright and trademark in addition to licensing and intellectual property litigation.

Aurelia has been instrumental in restructuring not-for-profit sector corporate boards, focusing on compliance and governance.

She is a professional speaker, workshop leader and panelist on brand protection and diversity in the law topics. Additionally, she has served as an adjunct professor of business law and intellectual property.

Aurelia has served as a mentor to diverse law students fulfilling her goal of introducing intellectual property law to new students while having her hand in impacting the advancement of the legal profession.

Memberships

National Bar Association

Education

- Rutgers University School of Law, J.D.
- Duquesne University, M.A.
- Temple University, B.A.

Bar Admissions

- New Jersey

Practice Areas

- Intellectual Property

Industry Group

- Sports, Media and Entertainment

Speaking Engagements

3rd Quarter – Business Development Seminar
CTR Strategy Solutions / August 24, 2023

Trademark Basics: What Attorneys Need to Know
National Academy of Continuing Legal Education / August 24, 2023
