Profile

Christina Yousef is a shareholder in Anderson Kill's New Jersey office. She concentrates her practice in insurance recovery, exclusively on behalf of policyholders.

Christina has represented policyholders in high-stakes insurance recoveries in federal and state courts around the country, litigating and negotiating claims for liabilities stemming from D&O liability, food contamination, environmental pollution, and construction losses and defects. Her clients include companies in the hospitality, food service, manufacturing and construction industries.

Prior to joining Anderson Kill, Christina was a Law Clerk for the Honorable Joseph A. Dickson, U.S.M.J., at the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey. She was also a Judicial Extern for the Honorable Leo M. Gordon at the United States Court of International Trade and an intern at the New Jersey Attorney General's Office.

Christina holds a J.D. from Seton Hall University School of Law, where she currently coaches the National Health Law Moot Court Competition teams, having won an array of moot court recognitions while in law school.
