

Sheldon Eisenberger

Shareholder / New York

☎ 212-278-1012

✉ seisenberger@andersonkill.com

Profile

Sheldon Eisenberger is a shareholder in Anderson Kill's New York office. Sheldon's practice concentrates in Corporate and Commercial Litigation.

With over 30 years of experience, he represents clients in sophisticated commercial disputes involving bankruptcy, estates and trusts, finance, real estate, securities tax, and white-collar defense.

Sheldon has tried many cases to conclusion in a wide array of venues including U.S. District Courts, state courts, bankruptcy courts, and tax courts throughout the country. Also, he has arbitrated many commercial matters before the Diamond Dealers Club and American Arbitration Association.

In addition to his litigation and arbitration/mediation practice, Sheldon is sought after to represent clients in the Beth Din arena for clients who prefer arbitrations governed by Jewish Halachic law, which also incorporates secular law.

Sheldon maintains an active representation in international financial markets, especially in Israel.

Sheldon is a Certified Public Accountant.

Education

- New York University School of Law, L.L.M. in Taxation
- New York Law School, J.D.
- Baruch College, B.A.

Bar Admissions

- New York

Court Admissions

- New York State Supreme Court
- New York State Appellate Division
- United States Tax Court
- United States District Court for the Southern District of New York
- United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York
- United States District Court for the Northern District of New York
- U.S. District Court for Arkansas
- Supreme Court of the United States

Practice Areas

- Corporate and Commercial Litigation
- White Collar Defense

News

Sheldon Eisenberger Joins Anderson Kill's Litigation Practice as a Shareholder
July 21, 2020 / Anderson Kill
