

Law360's Insurance Editorial Advisory Board

Law360 (March 22, 2018, 3:47 PM EDT) -- Law360 is pleased to announce the formation of its 2018 Insurance editorial advisory board.

The purpose of the editorial advisory board is to get feedback on Law360's coverage and gain insight from experts in the field on how best to shape future coverage.

The members of the 2018 Insurance Law360 editorial advisory board are:

Kimberly Ashmore, Wiley Rein LLP

Kim Ashmore represents insurers in complex disputes arising under professional liability policies, with an emphasis on claims against lawyers and other professionals, including accountants, architects, engineers, insurance agents and real estate brokers.

Larry Golub, Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP

Larry Golub is a litigator who focuses his practice on a wide range of litigation matters for both insurance and non-insurance clients. With more than three decades of civil litigation experience, his practice focuses on insurance coverage and class action litigation, regulatory work and appellate matters. In addition, Golub devotes a portion of his practice to employment matters, agency disputes and banking issues.

Fred E. Karlinsky, Greenberg Traurig LLP

Fred Karlinsky is co-chair of Greenberg Traurig's insurance regulatory and transactions practice group with over 25 years of experience representing the interests of insurers, reinsurers and a wide variety of other insurance-related entities on their regulatory and compliance, transactional, corporate and governmental affairs matters.

Kymberly Kochis, Eversheds Sutherland

Kym Kochis counsels insurers on a wide range of litigation and corporate governance matters and advises clients facing government inquiries and investigations. Her extensive knowledge of the insurance industry provides for deft representation of insurers opposing complex class action litigation. She also counsels on unfair trade practices and consumer fraud.

Lorelie (Lorie) Masters, Hunton & Williams LLP

A nationally recognized insurance coverage litigator, Lorie Masters handles all aspects of complex, commercial litigation and arbitration. She has advised clients on a wide range of liability coverages, including for environmental, employment, directors and officers, fiduciary, property damage, cyber, and other liabilities. She also handles various first-party property insurance claims, including under boiler and machinery, business-interruption, contingent business-interruption, extra expense and other related coverages.

Sherilyn Pastor, McCarter & English LLP

Recognized as a leader in her field, Sherilyn Pastor is practice leader of McCarter & English's insurance coverage group. She has secured hundreds of millions of dollars in insurance assets for policyholders. She tries complex coverage matters throughout the country, and provides advice to clients negotiating insurance policies and indemnity contracts.

Stephen Pate, Cozen O'Connor

Stephen Pate is a partner at Cozen O'Connor in Houston and is global co-chair of the property insurance practice group. Pate practices in the field of insurance coverage and extracontractual litigation. He is a regent of the American College of Coverage and Extracontractual Counsel, and is a member of the American Law Institute.

Steven J. Pudell, Anderson Kill PC

Steven Pudell is managing shareholder in Anderson Kill's Newark, New Jersey, office. He concentrates his practice solely on insurance recovery for policyholders. He has recovered insurance proceeds for chemical manufacturers, pharmaceutical companies, real estate developers and others. He currently represents food-related companies in various types of insurance litigation.

Christopher J. St. Jeanos, Willkie Farr & Gallagher LLP

Christopher St. Jeanos is co-chair of Willkie Farr's insurance & reinsurance: dispute resolution and counseling practice. An experienced trial lawyer who has tried numerous cases and arbitrations to verdict, he represents entities across the insurance and reinsurance industry, with a particular focus on insurance brokers. He also provides counsel on insurance regulations and sanctions

Darren Teshima, Orrick Herrington & Sutcliffe LLP

Co-leader of Orrick Herrington's complex litigation and dispute resolution practice, Teshima litigates high stakes disputes for technology and finance clients, with a focus on advising corporate policyholders on cyber and D&O insurance issues. In 2017, Law360 named him a Rising Star.

Kimberly K. Winter, Lathrop & Gage LLP

An insurance coverage and insolvency attorney with more than 20 years of experience, Kim Winter possesses great insight and perspective into complex coverage disputes, including those arising under general liability, umbrella/excess, product liability, cyber and data breach, employment practices, environmental, pollution legal liability, directors and officers, professional liability, errors and omissions, fiduciary, fire, commercial auto, uninsured and underinsured motorist, and first-party property policies, among others.

Jared Zola, Blank Rome LLP

Jared Zola advocates for commercial insurance policyholders in high-stakes, complex litigation and corporate transactions. He represents policyholders against their insurance companies as lead counsel in precedent-setting lawsuits across the nation and at the deal table as insurance counsel on multi-billion dollar mergers and acquisitions. He has helped clients secure more than one billion dollars in insurance recoveries.
