Date of Completion of CLE Course
(Attorneys earn CLE credit as of the date they complete a course)

Once your participation is verified, a CLE Certificate of Attendance will be issued to you via email.

- Attorneys should retain a copy of this Affirmation Form along with the CLE Certificate of Attendance.
- Experienced attorneys (attorneys who have been admitted to the Bar for more than two years) may earn CLE credit through non-traditional formats. Generally, newly admitted attorneys may not earn CLE credit through nontraditional formats.
- New York: Please note that one hour of CLE credit consists of at least 50 minutes of instruction. Credit hours must be calculated in no less than 25-minute (.5 hour) increments.
- New Jersey: Please note that the total instructional time in minutes is divided by 50 and rounded down to the nearest one-tenth (.1) of an hour. The minimum amount of time for any course to be granted credit is 50 minutes.
